PRESS RELEASE

PMLA Appellate Tribunal also releases assets of 63 moons from ED attachment

Mumbai, 17 September, 2019: The PMLA Appellate Tribunal, on Tuesday released the assets of 63 moons from attachment by the Enforcement Directorate (ED). This order comes soon after the Bombay High Court order, which quashed the attachments of 63 moons assets under the MPID Act.

However, the Tribunal, after quashing the attachment orders, has made it subject to filing of an indemnity bond within a week. The Tribunal has restrained 63 moons from dealing with the released assets till pendency of the trial of the larger issues in the PMLA court. 63 moons, based on sound legal advice, is of the opinion that passing of this sort of restraint order and of seeking an indemnity bond, particularly when the orders of attachment have been quashed, is beyond the power of the Tribunal under the PMLA. 63 moons will take appropriate legal recourse against this part of the order.

A detailed press release will follow.
